GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS TULLOSS TO BOARD OF TRANSPORTATION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Gus H. Tulloss of Rocky Mount to the North Carolina Board of Transportation.

Tulloss is president and CEO of Gus H. Tulloss Insurance. He is a member of the National Association of Life Underwriters and chairman of the Deleon Charter Foundation of Rocky Mount. He is a past president of the North Carolina Jaycees and the Rocky Mount Area Chamber of Commerce. Tulloss is also a past member of the University of North Carolina Board of Governors. He received the 2005 Rocky Mount Distinguished Citizen Award presented by the Boy Scouts of America. Tulloss received his Bachelor's degree in business administration from East Carolina University.

The board carries out the Highway Trust Fund enacted by the legislature and the Federal ISTEA program in a manner to best meet the transportation needs of the State of North Carolina. There are 19 members on the board, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints all members.
